Online Pedagogy

I am a pioneer in online teaching, having taught my first online course in 2001 on the SUNY Learning Network Platform (Lotus Notes) at SUNY Fredonia. In recognition of my experience and service in online course development and delivery, I was invited to be an Open SUNY Fellow and Mentor (Open SUNY, SUNY System Administration).

Trained in “Quality Matters” (QM) rubric and conducted course reviews using QM in the past. Open SUNY, however, developed “Open SUNY Quality Course Review” (OSCQR) as an open source alternative to QM, which includes a dynamic component to the process (action plans). Therefore, I now utilize OSCQR for self-assessment and course reviews for faculty teaching online in public administration and nonprofit management.

Served on Buffalo State’s strategic planning committee for online course development. I have mentored dozens of faculty in online pedagogy and delivered workshops and papers on online teaching.

I also have taken courses on Coursera and am developing a MOOC in The Italian American Experience.

Attended numerous training workshops to enhance online pedagogy, delivered via Open SUNY and campus instructional designers.

Graduate Courses Taught Online: Public Administration & Policy, Research Methods for Public Administration and Nonprofit Management, Migration Policy, Comparative Public Policy, Administrative Law, Transatlantic Public Administration & Policy (Globally Networked Learning Course with Babeş Bolyai, Romania and University and Manchester Metropolitan University, UK)

Undergraduate Courses Taught Online: Public Administration, European Union (including one semester team-taught with faculty at Manchester Metropolitan University in the UK, SUNY Cortland), and Jamestown Community College – SUNY, Introduction to American Government & Politics, World Political Geography, Italian American Experience (team taught)

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE & FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Model European Union (Luxembourg 1994, Prague 2000, 2002, Tilburg 2004, Izmir 2008, Limerick 2010, Exeter 2012), EU & Turkey (10 days, 2008), Undergraduate Research Study Mission (14 days, 2010, Brussels and member state capitals—arranged student interviews with government officials to enable my students to collect data for their research).

I have served as the SUNY Model EU advisor for SUNY Fredonia and SUNY Buffalo State, attending SUNYMEU and involved in its planning (writing handbook, writing program, etc.) since 1993. This experience has provided the opportunity to work with and build networks with students and faculty from other campuses in the U.S. and in Europe.

As PI on an Atlantis Grant (funded jointly by the US Department of Education and European Commission), since 2009 I oversaw four rounds of competitions for students to earn semester scholarships to study at Buffalo State's partner institutions in Romania and the UK. I have been responsible for four teams of students on my campus (2009-2013) from our partner institutions. I have placed several British and Romanian students in internships in Buffalo (federal, state, local government offices) and paid internships at the New York State Assembly.

Languages: French (reading reports, newspapers, and journal articles), Italian (good – I belong to an Italian language conversation club), Spanish (reading reports, newspapers, and journal articles, includes a semester abroad in Madrid as an undergraduate)

International Field Experience: extensive travel includes fieldwork; consulting; student programs; lecturing; working with counterparts at universities in the UK, Serbia, and Romania; and, conference participation.

Academic Administration

SUNY Buffalo State

September 1, 2006-May 31, 2017

I served in two administrative capacities dating to my acceptance of the post of department chair at SUNY Buffalo State, professor rank (September 1, 2006). I served as department chair for six years (two, 3-year terms), during which time I developed two graduate degree programs—the Advanced Certificate in Public Management and the M.P.A.—and one undergraduate program, B.A. International Relations. Because the M.P.A. was the first graduate program developed out of the political science department and was already enrolling 60 students by my sixth year in the chairmanship, I decided to focus my energies on managing and growing public administration and nonprofit management programming, which was my principal administrative undertaking from AY 2012-2013 through AY 2016-17.

Department of Political Science, Division of Public Administration and Nonprofit Management

(founding) Division Director and MPA Director (June 1, 2013-May 31, 2017)

 - 100 Days of the Trump Administration, semester long teach-ins (13) culminating in day-long events, including Town Hall on the 100th Day with prominent speakers.
 - Public Service Recognition Week (now an annual conference hosted by the Public Administration and Nonprofit Division)

 - Attended NASPAA accreditation workshop.
 - NASPAA requirements for M.P.A. core.

 - Built online teaching program in summer and J-Term.
 - Identified and trained several faculty to teach online graduate courses.
 - Scheduling courses to enable students to earn the Graduate Certificate in Public Management through online courses.

- Supervision, Mentoring & Faculty Development
 - Chaired the search committee for four new assistant professor lines dedicated to public administration and nonprofit management.
 - Wrote two grants for SUNY Diversity fellowships for two of the assistant professor lines as these junior faculty are considered minority faculty for affirmative action in New York State and federal guidelines. Both were hired by Buffalo State.
