Being an online class I expected more work than a traditional class, but the amount of reading at times was overwhelming. Given the required writings and quizzes I feel that a comprehensive final exam is a little much.

N/A

The material for this class is challenging and it really could have used a classroom setting- or at least a video lecture.

There were technical difficulties that affected my learning of topics such as not being able to access professor's comments and feedback on graded assignments.

This course should not be an elective but a requirement for all Public Track students

Please comment on the strengths and weaknesses of the instructor. Would you take another course from this instructor? Why or why not? (4 Comments)

Comments: Overall (4)

I believe that the strengths are that she was excited and knew the material. As for weaknesses- I believe that the biggest weakness is also a strength- it is the hands off approach to the discussions. I would have preferred to see questions from her .

Prof. Buonanno was very knowledgeable and interacted with the students. She was very quick to respond to messages. I would love to take an on-campus class with her.

The instructor is very knowledgeable in the subject area. However, instructor appeared to be aloof when critiquing students and assigned tremendous amounts of coursework to complete at once. Would recommend this instructor to lighten the courseload.

The instructor was knowledgable and enthusiastic. However, instructor was not flexible at all regarding deadlines. I expected some flexibility as we are all adults. I would take another course because the instructor had a great lesson plan .

Detailed Question Results

What changes would have improved the experience in this course for you? (7 Comments)

Comments: Overall (7)

A little bit of extra time between when assignments were due, specifically blogs. I think students should get at least one week to catch up on blogs. Seemed to be a lot of work between required readings, commentary, two responses, and weekly quizzes.

An adjustment in the instructor's attitude.

Classroom setting instead of online.

Hybrid offering instead of just online

I always felt behind the 8-ball in regard to reading because there was so much. Perhaps a little less additional readings when the chapter is lengthy. A comprehensive final after having weekly tests seems redundant.

I wish there weren't technical issues. I didn't care for the blogging part of the course.

Making assignments due on Sundays would have improved my participation.
